Explanatory Note

Allkem Livent plc (“NewCo”) has prepared this Amendment No. 2 (this “Amendment No. 2”) to its registration statement on Form S-4, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 20, 2023 (and as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto on September 26, 2023 (“Amendment No. 1”), and as may be further amended from time to time, the “Registration Statement”), solely for the administrative purposes of filing certain exhibits that could not be included in Amendment No. 1 due to the size thereof and making corresponding updates to Item 21 of the Registration Statement. PART II: INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Except as hereinafter set forth, there is no charter provision, bylaw, contract, arrangement or statute under which any director or officer of NewCo is insured or indemnified in any manner against any liability which he or she may incur in his or her capacity as such.

Pursuant to Section 26.1 of the articles of association of the registrant, the registrant must indemnify each director and officer and to the full extent permitted by law.

The registrant’s articles of association provide in relevant part: “To the extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify each existing or former Secretary, director (including alternate director), and other Officer of the Company (including an administrator or liquidator) and their personal representatives against: (a) all actions, proceedings, costs, charges expenses, losses, damages or liabilities incurred or sustained by the existing or former Secretary or Officer in or about the conduct of the Company’s business or affairs or in the execution or discharge of the existing or former Secretary’s or Officer’s duties, powers, authorities, or discretions; and (b) without limitation to Article 26.1(a), all costs, expenses, losses or liabilities incurred by the existing or former Secretary or Officer in defending (whether successfully or otherwise in accordance with the Law) any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceedings (whether threatened, pending or completed) concerning the Company or its affairs in any court or tribunal, whether in the Island or elsewhere. No such existing or former Secretary or Officer, however, shall be indemnified in respect of any matter arising out of his own dishonesty.” As used in the foregoing sentences, the term “Officer” means a person appointed to hold office in the registrant, including a director, alternate director or liquidator, but not including the Secretary (as defined in the registrant’s articles of association).

The relevant provision of the Jersey Companies Law is Article 77, which provides:

“(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), any provision, whether contained in the articles of, or in a contract with, a company or otherwise, whereby the company or any of its subsidiaries or any other person, for some benefit conferred or detriment suffered directly or indirectly by the company, agrees to exempt any person from, or indemnify any person against, any liability which by law would otherwise attach to the person by reason of the fact that the person is or was an officer of the company shall be void.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to a provision for exempting a person from or indemnifying the person against—

a. any liabilities incurred in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal)—

(i) in which judgment is given in the person’s favour or the person is acquitted,

 - (iii) which are settled on terms which include such benefit or detriment and, in the opinion of a majority of the directors of the company (excluding any director who conferred such benefit or on whose behalf such benefit was conferred or who suffered such detriment), the person was substantially successful on the merits in the person's resistance to the proceedings;
- b. any liability incurred otherwise than to the company if the person acted in good faith with a view to the best interests of the company;
- c. any liability incurred in connection with an application made under Article 212 in which relief is granted to the person by the court; or
- d. any liability against which the company normally maintains insurance for persons other than directors.

(3) Nothing in this Article shall deprive a person of any exemption or indemnity to which the person was lawfully entitled in respect of anything done or omitted by the person before the coming into force of this Article.

(4) This Article does not prevent a company from purchasing and maintaining for any such officer insurance against any such liability."

The registrant will maintain an insurance policy for its directors and officers in respect of liabilities arising out of any act, error or omission whilst acting in their capacities as directors or officers of the registrant or its affiliated companies.

Following the completion of the transaction, the registrant will be governed by the NewCo articles of association and the NewCo memorandum of association.
